[Redacted]

We have learned of your interest in employment with us through Senator Leverett Saltonstall who had heard about you from Senator Thruson B. Morton.

It was suggested that you might come to Washington for an interview to discuss employment prospects. Before you go to this trouble and expense, may we suggest that you fill out the enclosed preliminary application forms. (Please keep one copy of the Personal Resume because it duplicates some items from a much longer Personal History Statement which we may ask you to complete later.) This will give us sufficient information to screen the opportunities for you here. If the results are encouraging, we shall arrange for [Redacted] to meet with you at a convenient time and place to explore this matter further.

STAT

Your interest in our organization is appreciated and we shall give your reply prompt attention.

Very truly yours,

[Redacted]
